

January

This Little World Roar book is colorful, has concentric finger holes on every page, the rhyming text introduces children to animal sounds and makes learning come alive!